Wine Spectator Ratings
October 2012

Wine Spectator

92 points

Fresh and crunchy, with floral and Key lime notes to the powerful green apple and melon flavors. Light white pepper and saline notes enliven the finish. Very refined.

There's good cut to the rich and lacy white raspberry and black currant flavors in this white, which offers mouthfilling creaminess, with jellied citrus notes that extend on the rich finish.

Wine Spectator

91 points

Ripe apple and candied citrus flavors dominate, with plenty of savory notes and a slightly languid structure. Fresh-cut nectarine notes are matched with candied ginger accents on the finish.

Drink now through 2030.

91 points

Spry yet rich, with concentrated apple pie, custard and tarragon cream flavors that are well-focused. Hints of plush white chocolate show on the broad finish.

Drink now through 2030.
